RealCare® Baby 3
Caring for an infant is one of the biggest responsibilities many people will ever have. No textbook alone can prepare them for it — but with our revolutionary infant simulator, which cries for care throughout the day and night, you can provide a practical and measurable infant care experience your students won’t forget.

Like a real infant, RealCare Baby 3 requires the caregiver to:
• Determine what Baby needs – feeding, burping, rocking or diapering – then reinforces the correct answer by cooing
• Maintain proper head support and handle Baby safely

RealCare Baby 3 holds caregivers accountable by:
• Monitoring its surrounding temperatures
• Tracking how long it sits unattended in a car seat
• Tracking how often its clothing is changed and which articles are worn

These interactions, and more, are all tracked using wireless communication that integrates seamlessly with the included Control Center Software.

All Babies are available in male or female and a variety of skin tones and facial features.

By caring for RealCare Baby 3, caregivers will learn:
• How to prevent Flat Head Syndrome and other developmental issues
• How and why to dress Baby in weather-appropriate attire and keep Baby out of extreme temperatures
• The importance of interacting with Baby

Baby can detect rocking, burping and even sense motion during a feeding, so users can’t prop the bottle and walk away
RealCare Baby 3 is wirelessly programmable for instant data retrieval

Designed with education in mind, RealCare Baby 3 includes easy-to-operate Control Center Software which, when Baby is within 50 feet, enables the instructor to quickly and wirelessly:
- Customize individual simulations using schedules based on real infants
- Program up to 100 Babies at once, up to 7 days in advance
- Monitor individual simulations
- Receive and print detailed simulation reports
- Check Baby’s battery status

In addition to what care was provided and how often, simulation reports show details about temperature, clothing and car seat detection, as well as how often Baby was roughly handled.

Did you know? Our 15 available infant care schedules are based on the schedules of 15 live babies!

Participant FAQ app for iPhone and Android
Download our free app (Android or iTunes) that offers tons of information participants can use while they are caring for Baby. It just might save you from those late-night phone calls!
